The Maysville Orchestra gave the inspiration in a series of airs entrancing with grace to wear them-while the beaux, in immaculate white and dressy black, made the color scheme in toilets effective, distinct and noticeable.

The chaperones who studded the walls, like jewels, shone rich, fine and lasting; these wore mesdame gowns appropriate to so auspicious an occasion.

It was 9:30 ere the first number on the long program of dances floated out through the hall. As quickly the couples came forth, and thus was inaugurated the merry dance that lasted till the wee small hours of the morning. It was an ideal night for engaging in this pleasure, the night winds inviting that indulgence which taxes zeal and enthusiasm to their utmost capacity, for while without old Boreas blew with zero gale, yet within the glow of summer time, when flowers bloom and lights shine resplendently, gave utter rout to bleakness, frost or chill.

Conspicuous by their absence on account of sickness, those familiar figures usually seen at balls made serious inroads upon the overplus of women which oftimes gives the men large advantage, but last night threw them eral divides, which made of each girl a belle in very truth.
